1) Understand the law. As an example, even within this survey, you incorrectly define stalking to be based on the viewpoint of the student rather than of a "reasonable person". In this survey, you also seem to have a false dichotomy between free (protected) speech and hate speech. See Snyder v Phelps as a start. / / 2) Stop chilling protected speech. If speech is protected, regardless of how undesired it is, the university should not respond. / / 3) Consult legal counsel before making statements about or adopting policies that restrain student speech. / / 4) Privacy is necessary for protect the university as a place for free inquiry and speech. Adopt binding policies that curtail the university's ability to retain all network traffic permanently and do any inspection of it (assuming it is to ensure student compliance of university policy). This power, particularly when combined with the university's desire to stop some protect speech, is really concerning. / / 5) Expand free speech zones on campus to Centennial to allow for the university to better fulfill its role as a marketplace of ideas. / / 6) Respect due process in student conduct, particularly with accusations of sexual assault. You can maintain a presumption of innocence for the accused while assuming that the accuser is truthful. Also, use both a definition of consent and standard of proof consistent with criminal law or both consistent with civil law. Failure to do so tells some demographic groups that they are not as valued by the university as other demographic groups, either favoring groups that are typically victimized or groups that typically are the perpetrators. / / 7) Have a diverse selection of US Diversity and Global Knowledge classes. Last time I checked, there was no class dedicated to men's issues or Caucasian heritage, etc, despite contributing to US Diversity. This program promotes awareness and understanding of only privileged people groups. / / 8) Protect students' freedom of conscience and diversity of ideas. The US Diversity classes are just one attempt to implement thought reform on campus. The plan was implemented after an incident at the free expression tunnel and the university's inability to restrict protected speech. / / 9) Quit conflating a desire to protect student rights, accurate and less-biased information, and efficient execution of organization missions with being sexist/racist/...ist. / / 10) Foster greater diversity in attendance at diversity events. / / 11) Transparency ! Make policies publicly available ! The restrictions on speech (window displays) in University Housing was never made publ	White	Male
