

December 2018 Graduate Future Plans Survey College of Education Summary Report

This report presents summary results from the December 2018 Graduate Future Plans Survey for departments and types of degree programs in the College of Education, followed by summary information on employment and further education for the college as a whole.

Highlights for the College of Education

- 74% of the doctoral and master's students in CED graduating in fall 2018 responded to the survey
- 73% of doctoral respondents and 51% of master's respondents in CED report that they have secured full-time employment for the coming year
- CED graduates with full-time employment report an average salary in the coming year of $55,549 (median = $47,500)
- 93% of CED graduates with full-time employment will be working in North Carolina (62% in the Research Triangle Area)
- 7% of master's students in CED report that they plan to return to graduate/professional school in the coming year

Department Summaries

The following tables provide summary statistics for December 2018 graduates in the College of Education. Table 1 includes the number of graduate students in the College of Education who graduated in December 2018 and the number of those students who submitted the Graduate Future Plans Survey. It also includes the number of students who indicated at the time of the survey that they would be working full-time, as well as the number of those who indicated they were either pursuing or planning to pursue another graduate or professional degree in the coming year. Finally, it includes summary statistics on the self-reported salaries of those who reported that they would be employed full-time. Table 2 and Table 3 provide the same summary statistics for December 2018 graduates in each department in the College of Education, for doctoral graduates and master's graduates, respectively.
