

2022 Incoming Transfer Student Survey: Fast Facts

- 3 in 4 attended only one college/university before enrolling at NC State
- 89% reported NC State was their top choice for continuing college
- 28% said “academic reputation” was the most influential factor in deciding to attend NC State
- 95% reported they were “very” or “moderately satisfied” with NC State’s admission process

- 31% said their high school prepared them “very well” for college
- 57% said their last institution prepared them “very well” for NC State

- 2 in 5 are from a rural/small town
- 21% are first generation college students
- 55% come from a family with combined income less than $100,000

- 4 in 5 are using their own money to help with their AY22-23 college expenses, with 11% using more than $6,000 to do so
- 40% are taking out loans

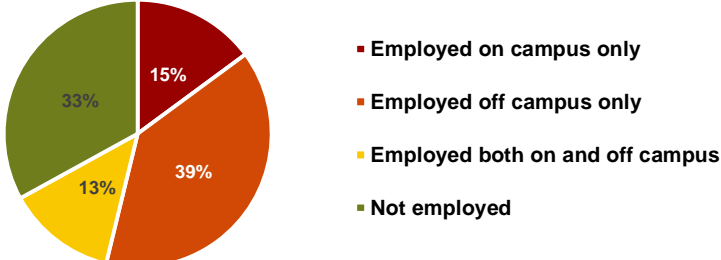

- 2 in 5 said they were taking fewer than 15 credit hours during their first semester at NC State, with the most common reason for doing so being to make better grades

Certainty of Academic Major, by College

Employment Plans of Transfer Students

What Students Say They are Most Excited About in Joining NC State

When asked about 48 different skills, students gave very high ratings to the importance, but very low ratings to their current development of:

- Time management
- Ability to manage ongoing stressors
- Recovering from emotional setbacks

55% said it is likely that they will participate in a Study Abroad program

53% reported that they plan on pursuing a graduate or professional degree

30% intend to seek post-graduation employment only in North Carolina

Survey Methodology

The Incoming Transfer Student Survey is administered every fall semester after incoming transfer students attend New Student Orientation. In 2022, of the 1,268 transfer students invited to participate in the survey; 542 students did so, for a response rate of 43%. Reports associated with the 2022 Incoming Transfer Survey are available on the Institutional Strategy and Analysis website. For more information, contact Institutional Strategy and Analysis at studentsurveys@ncsu.edu.